

Cindy Fratarcangeli

CONSULTANT

Cindy's impressive industry knowledge, candidate reach, and client focus have contributed to a consistent track record, over more than 15 years, of quickly and successfully closing board and C-Suite executive search assignments. Her clients include startup and established specialty retail and consumer products companies, department stores, restaurants, and venture backed concepts.

Cindy joined the team in 2005, bringing a valuable mix of boutique retail recruiting and large firm experience in the retail, consumer products and finance practices at Korn/Ferry International. Her previous career in merchandising at Caldor, Inc., including executive training and merchandising positions, gave her a solid industry foundation.

Cindy holds a B.S. in Business Administration from the University of Rhode Island.
